

Here is the list of Internet links for books #16 to 19.

A) Introduction.

This free list of Internet links is just help to the book.

Here, I give you suggestions of websites to watch. There are many others.

Note that each of the suggested sites may disappear at any time.

B) What book number of the work to read?

Since this work has been written progressively from 2017 until now (2024), the topics (or chapters) have accumulated. So I decided, for 2024, to offer you 2 books to choose from. It is possible to move from one book to another without difficulty, because they have the same chapter and article numbers.

The work lightened by 35% is book number 19. This is the book I recommend. It is easier to read because it does not present all the details of the research done to arrive at the conclusions, but only the important points.

Title: God really exists, He loves you, here's the proof

The complete work is book number 18. This book is more technical. All the details of the research done to arrive at the conclusions are presented there.

Title: Jesus, Lord and Savior, Light of the world

These books are free to read on this website.

Good reading!
